

Class – 6 (UNIT TEST)
English Literature
Ch – 1 (workbook)

A. Fill in the blanks with appropriate expressions:

1. Michael can do anything to help his friend. For him the sky is the limit.
2. Tina was terribly angry and breathing fire when she found out how the work had been mismanaged.
3. Anu told such jokes that we almost died laughing.
4. You can watch television. Ganesh will not be disturbed as he sleeps like a log.
5. It was a long and boring film that seemed to go on forever.

B. Match these idiomatic phrases with their meanings.

1. By hook or by crook – (b) by any means
2. In black and white – (c) in writing
3. Time and again – (d) repeatedly
4. Over and above – (a) besides

D. Write the part of speech of the underlined words.

How doth the little busy bee – Article, Adjective

Improve each shining hour – Verb, Adjective

And gather honey all the day – Verb

From every opening flower – Noun

How skilfully she builds her cell – Adverb

How neat she spreads the wax! – Pronoun

And labours hard to store it well – Adverb, Adverb

With the sweet food she makes – Preposition

In works of labour or of skill – Preposition

I would be busy too – Pronoun

For Satan finds some mischief still – Verb

For idle hands to do – Adjective

In books or works or healthful play – Conjunction

Let my first years be passed – Adjective

That I may give for every day – Adjective

Some good account at last – Noun

E. Fill in the blanks with appropriate words that belong to the part of speech mentioned in brackets.

1. Ramakant lifted the heavy bag and put it in the car. (adjective)
2. The athlete ran towards the finishing line. (preposition)
3. The boy bought a new cricket kit yesterday. (noun)
4. Parizaad was very excited to see her new scooter. (pronoun)
5. The children decorated the school auditorium beautifully for teacher's day. (adverb)
6. Paromita can both drive a car as well as ride a bike. (verb)
7. Bhupen could not attend the party because he had fever. (conjunction)
8. Linda was standing near the window and staring at the sky. (preposition)
9. Although tanmay was upset, he joined in the game. (conjunction)

